MARRIED IN PRISON; HONEYMOON HALTED

Bridegroom Sentenced to Ten Years, Bride, Two; Says She Will Wait for Husband.

A quick wedding ceremony, penitentiary sentences of two and ten years, a belated honeymoon which will not be enjoyed until the contracting parties are placed on probation or released, and the expressed unswerving affection of the bride for the man who is to serve eight more years in prison, are the the grim corridors of the United States jail last night.

Lee Swalles, twenty-three years old convicted of housebreaking, and centenced to serve ten years in the penitentiary, is the bridegroom, and Ethel fiture of the town gossips when it was fiture of the town gossips when it was discovered that the tand of reputed criminals proved to be the new minister and his family. the penitenlary, is the bride. Both are scheduled to leave on their sentences during the next week. Swailes to go to Stillwater, Mich., and his bride to At-stillwater, Mich., and his bride to At-lanta.

Swalles and his bride have been sweethearts since childhood. They were arrested at different times several months ago and convicted. While in the United States jail they were able to see each other occasionally. It was determined to have a wedding ceremony performed. Superintendent Zinkham.

performed. Superintendent Zinkham was notified and agreed.

Mrs. Swalles today outlined her plans in this way:

"As soon as my two-year sentence is served I'm going to Stillwater and await the release of my husband. We believe Mr. Swalles will be paroled after a few years. Then we shall so West a few years. Then we shall go West or any place away from Washington and begin life anew.
"Even if my husband is forced to serve the entire ten years in prison, I shall wait for him."

"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever, and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff, and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. Milk and leggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's aleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well."

Opportunity Knocks Once at Every Man's Door

Are you ready for your opportunity when it arrives?

A good banking connection is the best provision.

The American Security and Trust Company offers the best security and the most modern banking facilities-every accommodation consistent with conservative banking is at the disposal of their depositors.

A capital and surplus of five million dollars and a management that has practically made no change in many years place this institution in a position to render an exceptional banking service.
